Questions to consider, discuss, or journal.

After hearing the author's introductory poem, what stands out the most to you?

Have you ever questioned your faith? What led you to this and how did you move through it? Are you still there?

The author writes about the experience of being lost within the ecclesia. What does it mean to be lost within the ecclesia? Can you relate to her experience? Are there people that might currently be lost within your ecclesia? How can you connect with them?

Do you have a network of people who you can be open and honest with when you are struggling? What can you do to nurture these vital relationships?

Which source of hope resonates with you the most? What do you hope for? What strengthens your hope?

From the details shared to us from the author, What stands out to you from the story of Rahab?

"For the law never made anything perfect. But now we have confidence in a better hope, through which we draw near to God." Hebrews 7:19

How is God currently working in your life to strengthen your Hope?
